Standing Orders – dated April 2025

Adopted by Full Council on 5 May 2026

Full council decides Standing Orders for the organisation and transaction of council's business. A committee or sub-committee may decide its own Standing Orders if its appointing body (which is the council in the case of a committee or a committee in the case of a sub-committee) has not made Standing Orders which apply to them.

In this document, the Standing Orders in bold type should not be ignored or substantively amended unless the legislation out of which they are born changes. It is recommended that a council adopt the Standing Orders in bold type in their current form because these reflect statutory requirements. If a council wants to slightly alter the wording of the Standing Orders in bold type, any such amendments must not have the effect of undermining, overriding or conflicting with statutory requirements.

Standing Orders, not highlighted in bold type, do not incorporate statutory requirements. They are aimed at (i) highlighting matters that merit regulation by Standing Orders and (ii) encouraging use of Standing Orders to regulate routine administrative arrangements. They may be adapted in their current form but are more likely to require adapting or supplementing to suit a council's particular needs. Once again, a council is reminded not to adopt Standing Orders, which undermine, override or conflict with any requirements imposed by leg
